Answer any five activities

Activity I

You have read the poem "The Little Boy and The Old Man". Here is another poem on mother's love. Read it and answer the questions given below.

My mother bore me in the southern wild
And I am black but ,Oh,my soul is white.
White as an Angel is the English child.
But I am black as if bereaved of light.

My mother taught me undemeath a tree.
And sitting down before the heat of the day.
She took me on her lap and kissed me.
And pointing to the east began to say.

Look on the rising sun : there God does live.
And gives his light and gives his heat away.
And flowers and trees and beasts and men receive
Comfort in morning, joy in the noonday.

- (a) Where did the boy and his mother sit?
- (b) Pick out the line which shows mother's love?
- (c) Who enjoys the God's love?
- (d) Somebody gave the title 'The God's light' to this poem. How appropriate is the title?
